

BEAT A STEAMER EIGHT MILES.

Remarkable feat of California's Champion Oarsman.

Henry Peterson, California's champion oarsman, who is now training for the international regatta at Austin, Tex., has astonished everybody in that State by offering to row against the fastest steamer on the lake at Austin. Peterson has expressed his willingness to row the steamer any time for ten miles.

The offer made by the sculler grew out of the brush he had with a steamer the other day. According to one of the Dallas papers Peterson easily beat the steamer in a row of ten miles. It was the Ben Hur, and Peterson kept even with it for a mile or so, rowing thirty strokes to the minute. He then increased his stroke and when eight miles were covered he was out of sight of those on the steamer, having rounded a bend ahead.

"Rowing directly in midstream, the sun outlining every motion of the boat," says the correspondent, "he presented a picture that would delight the heart of any one. His performance yesterday has never been equaled on the lake."

Peterson is now rowing fifteen miles a day. He intends to keep this up or increase it until he is all ready with his race with Gaudaur.

Wilde Will Pay His Debts.

LONDON, ENG., Sept. 25. The examination of Oscar Wilde in bankruptcy proceedings was to have taken place today, and the convict playwright and author was brought from his prison to the Bankruptcy Court in a cab. He was not called to the stand, however, his counsel having asked for an adjournment of the proceedings, which the court granted. In moving for adjournment counsel stated that Wilde's debts amounted to £3531. Toward the liquidation of this sum his friends had subscribed £1500. The remainder would be made up, so that 20 shillings in the pound be paid.

Origin of the "Marseillaise."

Marseilles is as much noted for the wonderful hymn to liberty, known as the "Marseillaise Hymn," as it is for anything. The story of the origin of the song is one of great interest. On April 24, 1792, Dietrich, Mayor of Strasbourg, remarked at a banquet that it was very sad that the national war songs of France could not be sung by the present defenders because they all treated of loyalty to the King and not to the nation. Among the guests was a young captain of engineers, Rouget de Lisle, who had composed a successful hymn, "A La Liberté," and Dietrich appealed to him to compose a suitable song. The young man was struck by the suggestion and, during the night, was inspired with both words and air, and on the following day sang to Dietrich's guests the famous song which was to be the war song of the French Republic. Mme. Dietrich arranged the air for the orchestra; it at once became popular; the air was a taking one, it spread over the south of France and attracted the patriots of Marseilles, and was sung and immortalized by the 513 Marseilles patriots who marched across the country to Paris in 1792 to assist in the overthrow of the French monarchy. — Cleveland Plaindealer.

The German Government has ordered the American life insurance companies doing business in that country to close up their business by November 1. The same measure that caused the prohibition against American beef has doubtless been discovered in American life insurance companies. — S. F. Bulletin.

These troubles may be overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla, because Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure, rich blood. It is, in truth, the great blood purifier.

THE BEST TREATMENT FOR CHOLERA—When promptly and properly treated a recovery is almost certain. This was fully demonstrated during the prevalence of Cholera in New York in 1866. Go to bed as soon as the first symptoms appear, remain as quiet as possible, and take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy in double doses until the pain ceases, and then after each operation of the bowels more than natural. Send for a physician, but take this remedy in this way until he arrives. The remedy should be kept at hand ready for instant use. It should be taken within five minutes after the first symptoms appear. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy is the most successful medicine that has yet been produced, not only for the milder forms of bowel complaint, but for the most virulent forms of Asiatic Cholera.
